

Welcome Back!

I would like to extend a warm welcome to the new families joining our village, as well as those who are returning. I am excited that you have chosen to spend this school year with us! If you will be partnering with the Rhodes School for the Performing Arts – Northwest (RSPA-NW) for the first time, you will soon find that we are an excellent school with a dedicated staff; an engaging community; and students who perform well both in and outside of the classroom.

During the 2018-2019 school year, we will continue our focus on academic excellence; creating a strong sense of community; and encouraging a collaborative spirit. We believe all students can and will learn; therefore, we aspire to help students build the self-confidence necessary to take risks, endeavor new challenges and become accomplished learners.

Together, we can inspire greatness in every child by equipping them with the skills, pathways and belief that success is possible; however, consistent, effective communication is key. Therefore, I encourage you to stay connected by reading our monthly newsletter; registering with Remind 101; visiting the district's website regularly; and subscribing to our social media outlets.

RSPA-NW is an amazing place to learn and grow. Thank you for entrusting your child's schooling to us. I look forward to working with you!
