- The PFE Policy is a document that is reviewed once a year, (usually in May) by a committee of staff, parents and community leaders to discuss Title I Funding as well as ways our families are able to be involved in their child's education. After finalization of this document by the Committee, we distribute it to our families in the Fall of the following year and it is discussed at the Annual Title I Meeting.
- Our PFE Policy is distributed to our RSPA North Shore campus families and community leaders in the fall and is also posted on our website under our PFE tab.
- The PFE Policy is printed and posted on our Parent and Family Engagement Page on Rhodes School website for additional viewings of this document.
